

PEOPLE ACTING
TOGETHER IN HOWARD

Pathmaryland.org

Part of the

Intro to People Power Workshop: Mon, 6/29, 6:30–8 pm

Intro to People Power with PATH and the Maryland Alliance:

Owen Brown Interfaith Center, Sanctuary A, 7246 Cradlerock Way, Columbia

Join PATH for an in-person advocates and community action training workshop. What is broad-based power organizing, how is it connected to our values, and how do we do it? What have PATH and the Maryland Just Power Alliance won in the past and how did we do that? What roles are there in this work for you?

Register: <https://www.pathmaryland.org/events/intro-to-people-power-workshop>

Your Vision for Your Power Workshop: Wed, 7/8, 6:30–8 pm

Your vision for your power—an opportunity to reflect on your leadership

Wilde Lake Interfaith Center, 10431 Twin Rivers Rd, Columbia

In this workshop, reflect on the roots of your interest in organizing and social change, including your faith tradition and/or values. Learn about different models of leadership within organizing. Explore your current desire to act: what are you feeling called or drawn to do now? Draw up some plans for your leadership, practice talking about them with others.

Register: <https://www.pathmaryland.org/events/your-vision-for-your-power-workshop>

Workshop: Using Relational Meetings to Build Power: Thurs, 7/23, 6:30–8 pm

Using relational meetings to build power—skills, tools, and tips

Kittamaqundi Community Church, at The Carriage House, 5410 Leaf Treader Way, Columbia

In this workshop, learn about relational power, how to conduct relational meetings, and how to plan a relational meeting campaign that connects you with new people and makes new things possible. Includes tips to level up your meetings if you are already doing them.

Register: <https://www.pathmaryland.org/events/workshop-using-relational-meetings-to-build-power>