Pre-Reader

During the Season after Pentecost, we GROW in our faith.

Part of growing in our faith means learning to share what we have.

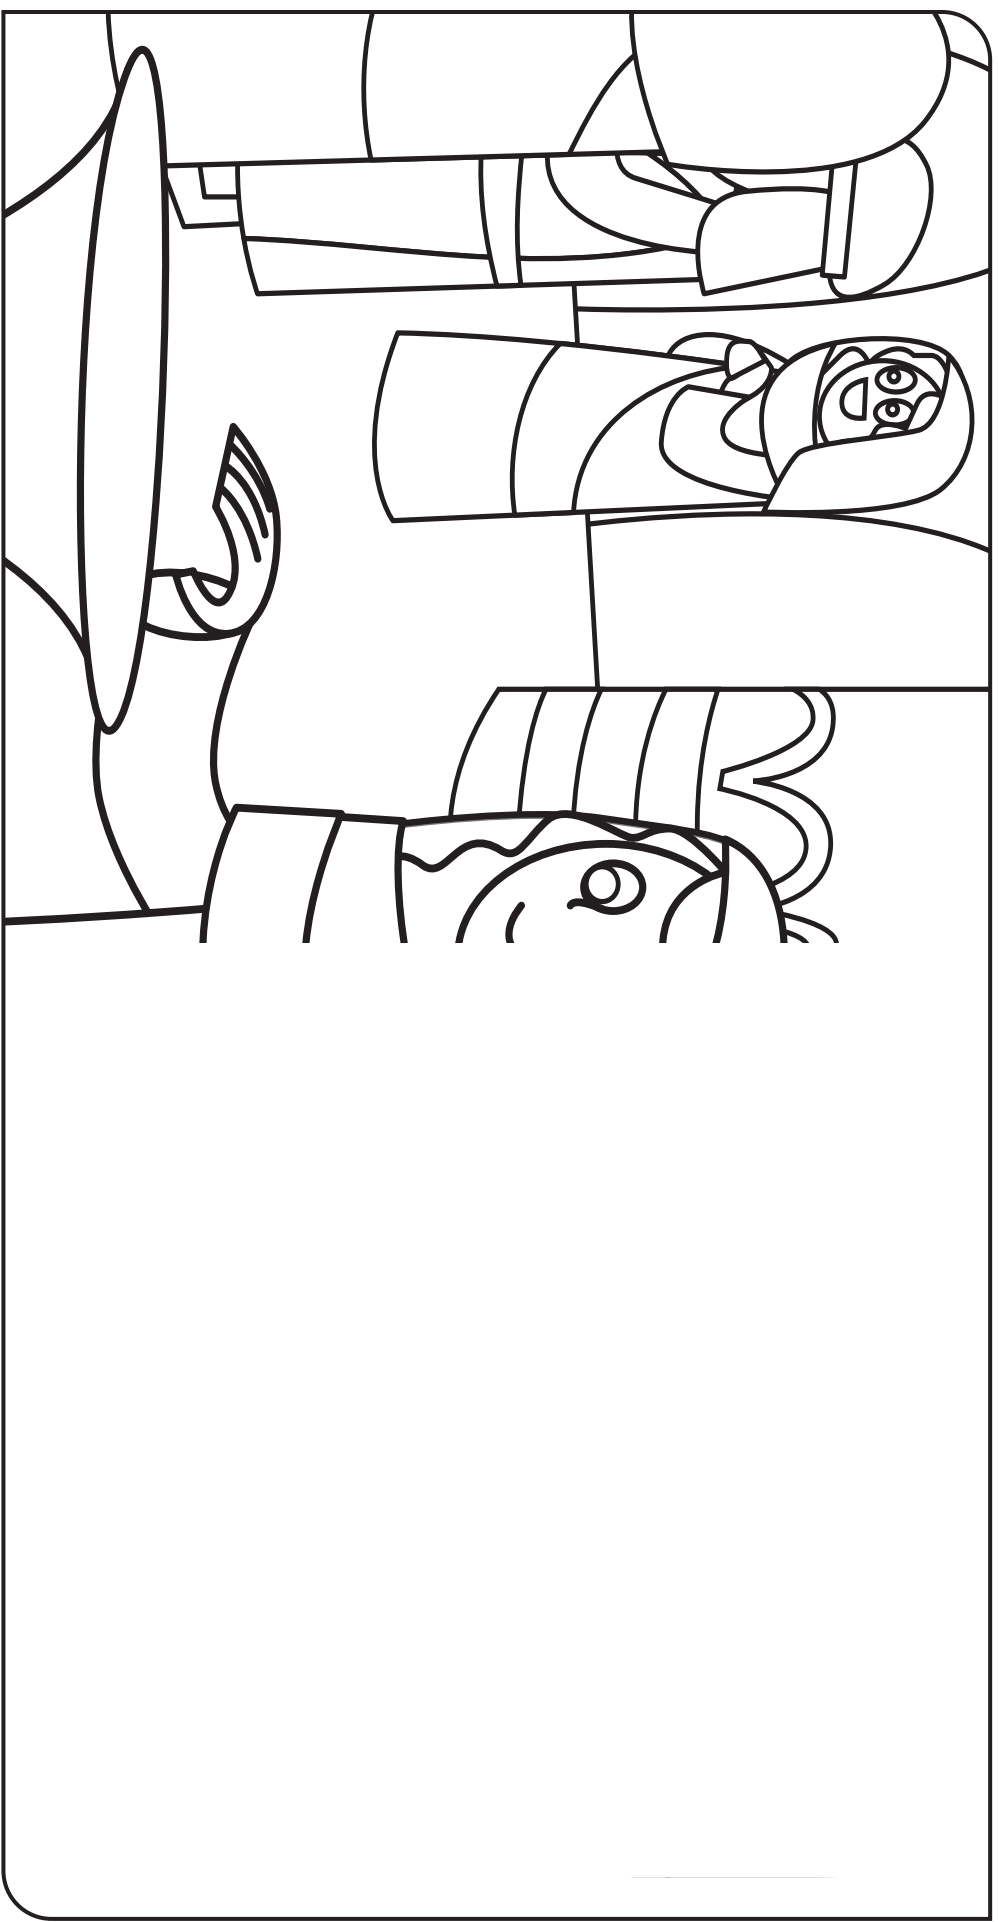

Circle the things you can share with others.

Sundays left in the Season after Pentecost

The widow gave ALL her money—two coins.

Complete the scene of the widow giving her two coins. Add the two coins dropping into the bowl, the rest of the widow's body, and the two disciples watching.

Draw a stained glass window.
Draw one that's in your worship space or make up your own.

Time for a church architecture lesson! Stained glass has been used in churches since the 600s.

Hey! It's me again, with the answer from the first page.
1. Pentecost 2. is 3. almost 4. over.

Can't figure it out? I'll help you out on the last page.

A widow came in and put in two copper coins.

On the first coin, write or draw what that you could give to the church now.

On the other coin, write or draw what you would like to give in the future.

Her offering seemed small,
but it was actually very big.

Today our church family prays for ...

The Widow's Offering

“Give quietly. Don’t try to impress others. THAT’S the kind of sharing I like to see,” said Jesus. Why was the widow’s offering better than the rich man’s?
