

Women's Bible Study 2024-2025 Program
Thursdays, 10-11:30 a.m.; Resurrection Chapel
(resumes Sept. 12, 2024)

St. John's Women's Bible Study (WBS) is a diverse group of women coming from a variety of Christian backgrounds. Everyone comes to learn and discuss a wide range of topics that stimulate and sometimes challenge us.

We will open this year's journey with a book by Rowan Williams called Token of Trust: An Introduction to Christian Belief. Williams discusses what it means to believe in God and how there can be a God in the midst of so much hatred and evil. This topic will surely evoke lots of discussion each week.

There will also be an occasional field trip, a study of Episcopal hymns, and a comparative study of the gospels. View the 2024-25 calendar here.

We look forward to a very interesting year and hope you will join us. If you cannot commit for the whole year that is not a problem. Join us for the topics that interest you. For more information, contact Allison Gradwell at WomensBibleStudy@stjohnsec.org.
